AEM welcomes long-only institutional funds as new shareholders

- Several institutional funds took up 2,737,800 vendor shares, representing approximately 4.2% of AEM issued and paid up shares
- Attracting institutional investors as new shareholders is part of Group's plan to institutionalize its shareholder base after embarking on a series of local and overseas road shows

Singapore, 6 June 2017 – AEM Holdings Ltd (“AEM” or “the Group”), a global provider of equipment systems solutions and manufacturing services, is pleased to announce that several long-only institutional funds have bought AEM shares and have become new shareholders. The institutional funds took up 2,737,800 shares at $2.70 a share from Orion Phoenix on 5 June 2017. As a result of the shares sale, Orion Phoenix's shareholding will be reduced by approximately 4.2% of AEM's issued and paid up shares to 23.96%.

Mr Loke Wai San, the Group's Non-Executive Chairman, commented, “Our investor relations efforts to educate the investment community on AEM's investment merits and its growth potential have been relatively successful. We welcome the expanding institutional shareholding support for our company as it often brings with it higher levels of scrutiny and demand for management accountability. It is a positive step in our longer-term goal for shareholder value creation through profitable growth.”
